PROCLAMATION—COAL MINERS

The following are new regulations
of the National Selective Service,
No. 210A:

1. Canada's national economy and the industrial war effort based upon it depend upon an adequate supply of coal;

2. And, the supply of coal is being seriously reduced because of a shortage of skilled labor, while the need for coal is growing with the growth of the national war effort;

3. And, unless the supply of coal is increased and maintained at a high level, the industrial war effort and the life and health of the nation will be gravely imperilled;

4. And, the mining of coal requires a high degree of skill and experience,
and it is, therefore, vital to the national interest to mobilize and employ in the production of coal all who possess this special skill and experience;

5. And, men with such skill and experience can make their maximum contribution to the war effort and the life of the nation only by engaging in coal mining.

"210A." (1) As used in this section,
"ex-coal mine worker" means any male person who has attained his 15th birthday but not his 65th birthday and who, since the 1st day of January, 1935, has been engaged or employed for an aggregate period of 24 months or more in the production of coal, either as a skilled or unskilled mine or surface worker, or as a maintenance worker in any coal mine or in the surface facilities thereof or who on or after the 1st day of January, 1935, has worked under authority of a provincial coal miner's certificate of license, and who, on or after the date of this Order, is employed in any employment other than coal mining and notwithstanding the provisions of section 202 of these regulations, shall include any such person who is employed as a wage earner wholly or partly in agriculture, but shall not include any such person who operates a farm, whether as an owner, tenant or full-time manager, and shall not include any full-time official of a bona fide union of coal mine workers, and shall not include any person who was engaged or employed exclusively in office or clerical work;

(2) (i) Every employer shall make every reasonable effort forthwith (a)
to advise his employees of the provisions of this section, by the posting of notice or otherwise, and (b) to determine which of his employees are ex-coal mine workers, by review of his personnel records and otherwise;

(ii) Every ex-coal mine worker who, on or after the date of this Order is employed or engaged in any other employment or occupation than as a coal mine worker, shall report his experience as a coal mine worker to his employer before the 26th day of May, 1943;

(iii) Every employer who is not a coal mine operator shall report in writing to a Selective Service officer before the 2nd day of June, 1943, the name and addresses and experience as a coal mine worker of those of his employees who he has determined are ex-coal mine workers or who have reported experience as a coal mine worker;

(iv) After the 1st day of June, 1943, no ex-coal mine worker shall continue in any other occupation or employment than that of a coal mine worker, and no employer shall retain any ex-coal mine worker in any other employment than that of a coal mine
worker, without the written permission of a Selective Service officer;

(3) (i) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection one of section 202 of these regulations, a Selective Service officer may by order in writing direct any ex-coal mine worker to report for interview
at a local office at any time;

of section 203 of these regulations,

CANADA BUILDS MIGHTY AIR BASE

The Canadian Army and the Royal Canadian Air Force, co-operating with other United Nations' air forces, have forged a mighty link in the war-time bomber route which joins the rugged Labrador coast to embattled Britain. The Canadian-built outpost at Goose Bay is one of the world's largest and most important air bases. The combined air forces operate the air line taking the vital ships to battle zones. Canadian Army units guard the area and Canadian construction gangs enlarge and maintain the outpost facilities. Mighty bombers are readied for the trip to Britain by the Royal Air Force Training Command. Runways going into the distance are 6,000 feet long.

the written permission of a Selective mine worker shall terminate his employment without the written permission of a Selective Service officer;

(3) (i) No person directed to employment as a coal mine worker, pursuant to the provisions of this section, and no person who, as his sole or main occupation, is engaged or employed as a coal mine worker shall be accepted prior to February 1st, 1944, for enlistment in any branch of the Armed Forces of Canada, unless such person has first obtained a per-

HONORS FOR SCHOLARS

Widely separated points in Southern Alberta will be represented on CJQC's Honors for Scholars program on June 4th. Students from the Bellevue and Del Bonita high schools will meet in a "battle of wits" on that date. Honors for Scholars is the program which brings together high school teams from all over the south to compete for the quiz honors. The Bellevue and Del Bonita high schools will each send four students representing the four high school grades.
Competition promises to be very keen when students from these two centres meet for the test of knowledge on Friday, June 4th, at 9.30 p.m. over Station CJQC.

Word has been received that among

MAKING MOST OF MEAT RATION

When Canadians begin to measure their meat of two pounds per person per week, according to the ration, they aren't going to risk waste. Proper care is the first precaution, and simple household rules should be observed. The Dominion department of agriculture lists the following suggestions:

Remove meat from paper as soon as it comes from the butcher.
Cover tightly and store in a cold place until needed.

Use ground meat promptly; raw or cooked, it spoils more quickly.
Keep ground meat tightly covered in a cold place. Do not cover or place in refrigerator until it has cooled.
Stews, meat soup, etc., combined with starchy foods (potatoes, flour, cereals) spoil quickly.

Wipe meat with damp cloth before cooking. Do not wash.

MEAT RATIONING IN EFFECT

When meat rationing came into effect yesterday, consumers were given their choice of several items which are exempted. They are: cooked meat loafs, salami sausage, summer sausage, blood sausage, farmer sausage,
headcheese, jellied meats and tongues,
frankfurters, bologna, hearts, livers,
kidneys, oxtails, spareribs, riblets, brains, sweetbreads and tripe. Cuts containing more than 50 per cent bone will not be rationed. Poultry, fish and game are, of course, exempt from meat rationing.

NEW SCHOLARSHIPS AT MOUNT ROYAL COLLEGE

At the opening of Mount Royal College next fall a number of new courses will be offered and new scholarships and bursaries made available to entering students, according to the calendar for 1943-44, which has just been issued. There are new courses for those wishing to enter on first year university work, and a number of new terminal courses for students who do not plan to go forward to university degrees. These include courses in journalism, home economics and management, courses for medical and dental assistants, Christian leadership and social service work, public speaking, etc. The commercial department has also been strengthened by the addition of a business administration course, which includes several new courses in advanced accounting.

The scholarships and bursaries are offered for students intending to enter Mount Royal College next fall.
These scholarships will be available to students who have been attending high schools in Calgary as well as those in attendance at high schools throughout the province, and will be awarded to students entering on university, commercial or any of the terminal courses, as well as the Grade XI students coming to Mount Royal College for Grade XII, from high school where this grade is not being taught. The scholarships are in amounts of $100, $50 and $35, and the basis of award will be a general knowledge and academic test to be written on May 29th at the students' own home centres.

Just eight months after building began, the great U.S. military highway through Canada to Alaska, is open supply routes for planes, food, guns and men. It brings the U.S. 2,000 m.e. nearer Tokyo by land. Picture shows

Speculation On Collapse Of Axis Through Air War

Washington.—The possibility that Allied military leaders are trying to shatter Axis Europe by aerial bombardment so that when invasion is attempted it will meet resistance only by a demoralized foe was read into Prime Minister Churchill's speech by competent observers here.

A flurry of speculation was stirred by two remarks made by Mr. Churchill, who omitted any direct reference to the long-discussed invasion.

He said:

(1) It is "worth trying" to bring about a collapse in Germany and Italy by air power alone.

(2) The Allies must do everything "feasible and practicable" to divert Axis strength from the Russian front.

In view of the devastation wrought in Germany and occupied Europe by recent round-the-clock bombings, chief interest in official Washington centred around what seemed to be a hint that the cherished theory of "pure air power" enthusiasts—a victory by air alone—was being put to the test.

"Opinion is divided," Churchill said, "as to whether the use of air power could by itself bring about a collapse in Germany or Italy."

"The experiment is well worth trying, so long as other means are not excluded."

While informed persons agreed that this seemed to bode an even greater scale of bombing than anything yet seen, they were sceptical of any deduction that invasion by ground troops would be withheld or even delayed.

More likely, they suggested, the Allied high command knows that the problems of invasion will be enormously simplified by calculated destruction beforehand, and may hope that the ground forces when they do invade the continent, will find a demoralized foe.

Observers were reluctant to infer from the prime minister's cautious phrasing of "feasible and practicable" moves to divert German attention from Russia by "hedging" on second front plans. Two possible explanations were suggested for avoiding discussion of an invasion—a desire to "keep the enemy guessing," and the possibility that large operations are so near that Churchill thought it wiser not to give out any hints.

Whether or not the all-out aerial offensive produces collapse or complete demoralization in Italy or Germany, observers agreed that it inevitably would make the invasion by ground forces a much easier job.

MUST HAVE FOOD

President Roosevelt Addresses Delegates At Opening Session Of Conference

Hot Springs, Va.—President Roosevelt told the United Nations food conference that "no hindrances, whether of international trade, of transportation or of internal distribution," must be removed to keep the people of the world from receiving the food necessary to health.

"Society must meet in full its obligation to make available to all its members at least the minimum adequate nutrition," the president said in a message to the conference's opening session.

Delegates of 43 governments, a French representative and the Danish minister to the United States assembled in the Homestead hotel for the first plenary session of the first United Nations conference on post-war problems.

Mr. Roosevelt reminded them that "the broad objectives for which we work have been stated in the Atlantic Charter, the Declaration of United Nations, and at the meeting of the 21 American republics at Rio de Janeiro in January, 1942."

"It is the purpose of this conference," he explained, "to consider how best to further the policies insofar as they concern the consumption, production and distribution of food and other agricultural products in the postwar period."

REPORT STUDENTS

4,000 Sent From Netherlands For Forced Labor In Germany

London.—German occupation authorities have deported 4,000 Netherlands students to Germany for forced labor, the Netherlands agency, Ansa, said. Ansa quoted Maximal Georings' paper, Reussener National Zeitung, as saying the students had been deported after 90 per cent refused to sign "a declaration of obedience" to all Nazi regulations.

Lieutenant-Comdr. R. E. Coleman, R.C.N.R., of Montreal, commanding officer of H.M.C.S. Ville de Quebec, which rammed a German sub. He has two great uncles in the Battle of Trafalgar and comes from a "navy" family.

Thousands Of Recruits Must Be Furnished

Ottawa.—Defence Minister Ralston told the House of Commons that "this year looks like a year of action and Canadians will be in the thick of it," and announced that this year's program was aimed to keep the army overseas reinforced and equipped. He said that it was the intention to send 75,000 men overseas in the current fiscal year, but that he was not announcing any new formations.

To supply adequate reinforcements and equipment and maintain proper reserves was the program in brief, and for this purpose the minister said 177,000 new recruits for the three armed services would be required in the current fiscal year.

The wind-up of Col. Ralston's statement on the army's $1,754,000,000 share of this year's $3,880,000,000 war appropriation bill contained these points:

1. The year's program calls for 100,000 new recruits for the army, including 75,000 for overseas; 24,000 for the navy and 53,000 for the air force.

2. Distribution of available manpower as between the armed forces and vital industries called for integration of defence and national selective service departmental activities and teamwork by all citizens.

3. He hoped to get for the armed forces some of those likely to be released through layoffs in certain war industries which have filled immediate requirements.

4. The Canadian Women's Army Corps has been the most satisfactory experiment in the department and plans are under way to accommodate 1,400 recruits a month where only 700 now are offering.

5. Canada is just beginning the rationing of manpower and he has confidence the people will accept incidental discomfort with the same spirit as that displayed by those in the services.

He warned against over-estimation of the significance of the North African victory. It was part of the preparatory, but not the decisive, stage of the victory. Canadians might fight as an army or broken up into units, Col. Ralston said.

ORDER PLACED

United States Is Supplying Helicopters For Use In Canada

Washington.—The Canadian war-time information board disclosed that six helicopters have been ordered from the U.S. for possible anti-submarine work.

The R.C.A.F. also may employ helicopters to rescue airmen forced down in areas inaccessible to any other kind of conveyance, the announcement said.

STATISTICS OFFICE

Vancouver.—Dominion bureau of statistics has set up an office in Vancouver to study at first hand the cost-of-living index and to confer with provincial organizations and investigate their complaints. Similar offices are being set up in other provinces.

EVERYTHING READY

Council Of French Resistance Has Made Invasion Day Plans

London.—A new decree setting the death penalty for "severe cases" of strikes or stop-downs was reported from Holland, while from France and Yugoslavia came fresh news of resistance to the Axis overlords. The new decree applies to physicians, veterinary surgeons, dentists and druggists as well as workers.

As to France, Fernand Grenier, former Communist deputy who now is with the Fighting French, reported that the underground had issued an "Invasion Day" plan to go into effect when the Allied attack comes.

Describing the "Invasion Day" plan distributed to the recently organized Council of French Resistance, which embraces underground organizations, Grenier said it instructed Frenchmen that:

Mobilization should start the moment of invasion, with arms supplied then; a general strike should paralyze all economic and industrial activities throughout France; Vichy military or police forces attempting to hinder the patriots should be killed or captured; prisons and jails should be opened and political prisoners freed.

ITALIAN AIR FORCE

Even With German Help Could Not Withstand Allied Attack

London.—The British air ministry said in a summary that "the total Italian air strength is so small and so technically inferior to the Allies that its best efforts, even in conjunction with the German air force, could not adequately protect Italy from Allied air attack."

The bulk of the Axis air strength in Africa, the ministry statement said, was the German air force, and even with that trained personnel and with planes superior to those of the Italians the Axis lost at least four times as many aircraft as did the Allies.

The statement pointed out that Italy was vulnerable to air attack from both North Africa and from the Middle East.

A Berne despatch quoted Milan sources as saying that Gen. Vittorio Ambrosio, chief of the Italian general staff, had presented his resignation to Mussolini.

Conference On Food Important For Canadians

Ottawa.—Though the public has paid little attention to the United Nations food conference now in session at Hot Springs, Va., this meeting is seen by Ottawa authorities as one of the most important of its kind ever held. It is not putting too much emphasis on the food conference to say that from it may flow the entire future shape of Canada's position in the world as a leading food-producing nation.

The Canadian public should not overlook, an informed source said, the true nature of the meeting. The conference is at the technical level, that is, it is a meeting of experts whose first task is to discover working basis for continued co-operation in two long-range fields:

1. The possibility of establishing international nutrition standards which will fulfill the Atlantic Charter's plank of "freedom from want."

2. The possibility of integrating the food-producing capacity of the world in order to assure maintenance of high levels of nutrition.

This is not a war conference; it is post-war. It will not deal with food relief as a war problem; that is a matter for other conferences not yet organized on a United Nations scale. Canada will be interested naturally in food relief; but in long-term post-war food policy, the whole economic position of Canadian agriculture is at stake.

In due course, international treaty obligations may arise from the conference. But these are still in the future. It is at present solely a conference of experts, on whom rest the task of reaching a working basis among nations on future food policy. It may easily become a precedent to be followed in future as the United Nations' technique in working out mutual problems arising in the coming new world order.

Montreal.—The BBC said the Daily Express published two photographs of the French "invasion" coast made with a ten-foot-long telephoto camera. The pictures showed fortifications prepared by the Germans.

The camera, using infra-red plates, was set up on the cliffs near Dover and the resulting photographs showed a 10-mile-long panorama of the French coast.

Burma Raid By British Troops Was Kept Secret

A British base on the Indo-Burma Frontier.—A super-raid by British and Empire troops that for three months swept through Burma on a 300-mile front, wrecking railroads and bridges and generally harassing Japanese occupation forces, drew near its close as the raiders, many of them disease-ridden, struggled out of the jungle.

For three months fighting forces of Britons, Burmese, Indians and jungle tribesmen marched through the jungle, bobbing up everywhere from Mandalay northward to Myittha to pester the Japanese, while not a word of their exploits was allowed to reach the world.

(Reuters news agency said the force included a small number of Canadian and Australian volunteers. The Reuters despatch to London identified one of the Canadians as Capt. Roy MacKenzie of Windsor, Ont., who said he helped blow up a railway line and once was swept nearly two miles down the Irrawaddy river.)

The raid began Feb. 15 when a force of whom a third were Britons crossed the Chindwin river on the Burma side of the frontier. It was at a somewhat critical hour, as in April Burma on the Salween front the Japanese were pressing hard against the Chinese. A band of approximately 5,000 loyal Burma tribal fighters were surrounded in north Burma and threatened with annihilation by a Japanese punitive expedition.

The man who led the expedition is Brig. Charles Orde Wingate, 39, the same man who at the beginning of the Ethiopian campaign three years ago led 2,000 British and 1,000 Ethiopian warriors in operations that resulted in the capture or disposal of 40,000 Italians.

Before his troops returned they were convinced they had accomplished a seven-fold task:

They had destroyed several bridges and had blown up 100 miles of railroad in 70 different places.

They had delayed a Japanese move against the Chindwin river barrier near the Indo-Burma frontier.

They had taken the pressure off the Chinese to the north.

They had saved 5,000 loyal native warriors by compelling the Japanese to withdraw their punitive expedition for use against the raiders.

They had received invaluable training in jungle warfare, and they had proved Wingate's contention that quick training could make Allied troops equal to the jungle and the Japanese.

INCOME TAX FORMS

Should Not Take Long To Complete Says Revenue Minister

Ottawa.—Revenue Minister Gibson told a press conference that 2,000,000 Canadians completing income tax forms this year should average about 15 minutes for the job against more than half an hour using the old, more complicated forms.

The minister showed newspaper samples of the new simplified form for persons receiving less than $3,000 income annually. A detailed table on the form permits a taxpayer to ascertain his tax liability quickly.

The notice of assessment sent to every taxpayer, showing the amount due and the amount paid, will contain a certificate setting out the total of refundable taxes for the year.

The taxpayer will keep these certificates year by year, and when the year is over and the refundable portion is about to be repaid by the government he will know his position exactly.

BEING KEPT SECRET

Nothing Known About American Specialist Units Now In Britain

London.—Extraordinary secrecy surrounds arrival in Britain of thousands of American crack specialist units. Nothing is known except that they are in Britain. What kind of specialist troops they are no one knows, but it is known they are a vital part of United Nations invasion strategy.

Thirty correspondents had been invited to see the arrival of the convoy, but when they reached the destination they were ordered back to London. Authorities had decided to take every precaution against any description of the specialists leaking out.

SAVE ALBERTA'S FORESTS

This is the time of the year when the forests of Alberta are in the gravest danger. It is Spring time. The leaves have barely started to come out and the wealth of green has yet to appear. With a few days of heat the forests will be a veritable fire-trap.

This year is different to any other. It is more difficult than any other. Help of any kind becomes increasingly difficult to secure. Active service and war industries have absorbed the bulk of all available labor. If the tragedy of fire should come now, little could be done to halt it.

The problem of fire danger can only be solved this year by the people themselves. It can only be solved by fire prevention — and fire prevention means simply the exercise of thoughtfulness and consideration — the employment of simple, ordinary, common sense.

Over 95 per cent of all forest fires are caused by man. They are caused either by criminal carelessness or by deliberate incendiarism to create fire-fighting jobs. With reference to the latter, whenever such offenders are caught, the punishment meted out is swift and as severe as the law will permit.

The annual appeal for fire prevention is more insistent this year than it has ever been before. If the fire comes, the country must burn and be laid waste. They must not be allowed to come.

Alberta's forests have to conserve moisture, not only for this province, but for all of Western Canada.

This year, as never before, the citizens of Alberta, resident in the neighborhood of forest growth, are appealed to as they have never been appealed to before. Irrespective of age, station or sex, every single one is given this all important war duty, which calls for watchfulness and caution, so that the war effort of this province, coupled with the safety of forests, homes and life in all communities, shall in no way be imperiled.

This year in Alberta there must be no fires. That is the order, dictated by public conscience. It is an order which must definitely be obeyed.

A prairie or bank fire is usually considered an unwelcome visitor, but the ravages of fire on two occasions recently in the Blairmore Protestant cemetery did more good than harm, clearing up several years' accumulation of dead grass and rubbish, improving the appearance of the cemetery immensely.

URGE GROUP RIDING

ON FISHING TRIPS

Opening of the angling season in some parts of Alberta on May 10th and some weeks later in other sections will cause many car owners to plan short trips.

In the interests of fuel conservation, these anglers are being urged to organize groups so that all car seats will be occupied. One car can carry a number of these anglers from a neighborhood, instead of several cars being used for the trip.

Just as the practice of group riding to work is growing in popularity, so can group riding for sporting purposes be generally adopted.

This system is reported to be winning greater usage in the United States.

In various ways, car owners are carrying out the idea of conserving tires and fuel, recognizing the demands of a wartime emergency.

If they observe the essentials of economy, they will give longer life to their tires and also have fuel for operations over a longer period.

Carefully organized group riding will mean much to the motoring public, according to the Alberta Motor Association, which has called on its members to give their full support to tire and fuel conservation measures during the war period.

WRONGFULLY NAMED

A guy named Wisdom, of southern Alberta, was convicted and fined for purchasing car tires unlawfully.

MAY REPLACE GAS RATIONING BOOKS

Motor car owners have been urged by the Alberta Motor Association to take special care of their gasoline ration coupon books.

Recently, the regional oil controller's office announced that in case of any persons losing or having their coupon books stolen or mutilated in any way, a re-application supported by affidavit may be made.

In granting a new book, the oil controller's office will take steps to prorate the value of the book, according to the date of the new application. That is, a number of coupons will be taken from the new book, based on the period that the old book could have been used. After this proration, the number of coupons left in the book will be reduced by one-half and the balance given to the applicant.

These restrictions are designed to impress on motorists the need of giving special care to their original ration books issued for the 1942-44 license year.

MEAT RATIONING AS IT AFFECTS FARMERS

Farmers may slaughter their livestock for their own consumption—but must turn in to the Local Ration Board at the end of each month, 1 coupon for each two pounds of their own slaughtered meat consumed on their own premises. Farmers need in no case surrender more than half the number of each month's valid coupons for such home slaughtered meat.

The remaining half of farmers' meat coupons may be used for ordinary retail purchases of meat, on the basis of coupon values as shown on the chart above.

Farmers may supply meat from their own slaughtering to other farmers for consumption on their own farm premises. Local farmer "Red Rings" are also permitted. Farmers providing meat to other farmers, or "Red Rings", must collect meat coupons on the basis of 1 coupon for each two pounds of meat, gross weight. Self-addressed and stamped envelopes for mailing in coupons can be secured at your Local Ration Board.

CONSUMER MEAT IN LOCKERS

Before June 30th all consumers (including farmers) who store meat in lockers must declare in writing to the nearest Branch of the Ration Administration, the quantity of rationed meat they have in storage over and above eight pounds per person in the household. Declarations must be accompanied by sufficient coupons from the ration books of the locker holder and his household, to cover the quantity of declared stored meat at the rate of 1 coupon for each two pounds of any meat in the above groups.

The number of coupons to be declared by the locker user need not exceed more than 50% of the total meat coupon in the possession of himself and his household.

Locker users may retain for retail purchasing one of each similarly numbered pair of coupons.

NOTICE

TO THE MEAT TRADE

Retailers of meat must collect coupons for any rationed meats sold on or after May 27th. They need not turn in coupons to their suppliers for meat purchased up until June 10th. This arrangement is made to enable them to build up stocks. A Special Food Bulletin giving complete details of meat rationing is being mailed to all food stores.

British armies, together with troops from the Commonwealth, have now driven all Axis forces out of the Italian Empire in Africa, an area twelve and one-half times as large as Britain. Great joy reigned throughout the R.C.A.P. (Women's) Division, when orders were received giving the girls permission to wear silk stockings after duty hours. This, together with the smart new hats, and neat blue purses now on hand to be issued, will certainly make the W.D. the smartest girl in uniform. New uniforms of cool khaki worsted are to be issued in the near future, for wear during the hot summer days. Any girl who is smartly dressed in civilian life need have no hesitation in stepping out in the smart uniform of the W.D.

Increasing War Traffic Means Less Space For Pleasure Travel

Use Railways For War—Not Pleasure

This locomotive is hauling a precious cargo—crates of supplies for the armed, machine tools for war industries, shells and guns and aircraft parts. Others, criss-crossing the land by day and by night, are moving troops to embarkation points, carrying servicemen on leave, bringing business men to key points for vital discussions on war production.

Today, the railroads of the nation are confronted with the task of handling twice the traffic of the last war with less equipment. The situation is aggravated by wartime restrictions on gas and tires.

Canadian Army equipment to the value of $238,000 was destroyed by fire at the Regina exhibition grounds last week.

Fines totalling $650 were imposed recently on Chinese vegetable dealers in Vancouver for infractions of price ceilings on potatoes.

Hot dogs, delectable tidbits offered at fairs, hikes and picnics, aren't on the ration list, coming under the category of cooked sausages or wieners.

The Canadian Army in Newfoundland went over the top in their subscriptions to Canada's Fourth Victory Loan on the ninth day of the campaign.

The special meeting of the Blairmore Lodge of Elks on Monday night, May 24th, was very largely attended and much enjoyed. Three candidates were initiated, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Taft, widow of W. H. Taft, former president of the United States, passed away at her home in Washington on Saturday at the ripe age of 81. She is survived by two sons, Robert, member of the U.S. Senate, and Charles P., serving as assistant director of United States office of defence health.

Many of the new replacement ties deposited recently along the C.P.R. right-of-way have been removed by some person or persons who may yet be brought to justice. Some have been converted into fishing rafts, others deliberately thrown into lakes and streams. These ties are crocoked and cost money.

"There are few men who have contributed more to the wholesome of rural life than the editors of weekly papers. The columns of our weekly newspapers have been free from sensationalism and the appeals from class prejudice. They have been characterized by a sanity and high moral tone that are the bulwark of our national life."—Mr. Rev. A. R. Beverley, bishop of Toronto, at funeral service for late Samuel Charters, publisher, at Brampton, Ontario.

As a result, Canadians are asked to avoid unnecessary travel; not only outings, fishing trips, and pleasure week ends, but visits to relatives, holiday trips, and non-essential business journeys.

An outstanding case of travel dislocation is the convention, the number of which must be drastically curtailed to help the railroads meet the demand for vital war service. Today, there are no conventions—except those which are indispensable even in wartime—which cannot be cancelled, postponed or held with only local participants in attendance.

Many families depend on winter forest work for a large part of their income. Think of others when burning brush or slash.

Brown was feeling his way to the kitchen stove on Saturday night in the dark, when he fell over the coal scuttle. "Oh, George," called Mrs. Brown, sweetly, "I know what you need. You should get what they have on all battlefields." "What's that?" growled Brown. "Why, a range shield, sir."

Uncle Charlie says a lady was heard to remark that she would enjoy fishing if it were not for so much wiggle. First, she says, the worm wiggles so much she has difficulty in getting him on the hook; then when she gets a strike the boat wiggles so much she can't stand on her feet, and when she finally lands the fish, it wiggles so much she is exhausted by the time she gets it in the basket.

There goes your letter to your boy...

IN IT, you put spun bits of chit-chat you he wants to hear... and in it you also put your heart. You mailed it with a prayer that it might find him safe and well. Look—it's already on the way... speeding as fast as railway wheels can carry it. Those singing wheels carry more—much more—than letters. They carry food for your pantry, coal for your furnace. They roll tirelessly that you may live in comfort. They race across the great stretches of this Dominion with the men and materials of war, so that all of us may live in freedom. Twenty-four hours a day our railway wheels are rolling, driven by an army of over 150,000 workers serving two major fronts... the home front and the fighting front. "Keep 'em rolling" is their watchword, whether it's food or fuel, tanks or troops. Or just your letter to your boy...

Channing Pollock tells this story: At 14 I made my first railroad journey alone, from Salt Lake City to Belleville, Kas. One of the passengers, a stockily built man, took an interest in me; frankly amused when I gave my views on Byron and Dickens.

At last he inquired whether I had read "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes."

"Don't you think," I inquired pontifically, "that detective stories are a waste of time?"

My newly made friend grinned widely. "Well, no, I don't," he said. "You see, I write 'em. My name is A. Conan Doyle."

The "Distinguished Civic Service Award" for 1942 was presented posthumously to Sir Edward Beatty, G.B.E., K.C., LL.D., D.C.L., long-time chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, recently at a ceremony in the board room of the Windsor Station, Montreal. Dr. Henry A. Beatty, of Toronto, Sir Edward's brother, accepted the award, a beautiful silver tray, suitably inscribed, from T. Taggart Smyth, president of the City Improvement League of Montreal, one of the many projects for city betterment to which Sir Edward gave so generously of his time and talents. D. C. The Careful Shepherd

Knows Sheep Must Be Well Fed And Kept Dry

In successful sheep raising, nutrition, as with other animals, plays an important part. Half-starved sheep become a liability. The careful shepherd provides luxuriant and nutritious pastures in summer; legume roughage, oats, wheat, and bran in winter, and a liberal constant supply of minerals.

Sheep are very sensitive to dampness. Any barn which does not keep the feet and coats of sheep dry will prove a failure. Light is just as important. As a rule, one square foot of window for each 20 square feet of floor space is sufficient.

In Spite Of Decree

Dutch Growers Have Named A New Tulip The Spitter

Dutch bulb growers have given the name "Spitter" to a new tulip and Nazi authorities are mad about it. "Giving English names to new things is forbidden," said the German-controlled Dutch press. But the growers have a way of being forgotten. In the flower bulb field it is customary to give English names to new varieties owing to the former export to Anglo-Saxon countries.

MARKED IN ARABIC

All cheese in Egypt must now be marked in the Arabic language. In the absence of this marking, exporters have to arrange with the customs authorities to have the origin mark applied to each unit of merchandise in Arabic characters before withdrawal from customs.

REG'LAR FELLERS—A Good Citizen

Health LEAGUE presents TOPICS OF VITAL INTEREST

DID YOU REALIZE

"Insurance companies consider gardeners to be a very good risk," says Dr. H. Wasteneys, biochemistry department head, University of Toronto, who has long been active in the community garden movement, and who is co-operating with the Health League of Canada in its national Victory Garden campaign. "In fact, according to my experience there seem to be more elderly people engaged in gardening than in any other occupation. There seems to be something vital and living in the very soil itself which gives renewed vigor and energy to the body."

"There is nothing healthier than getting out into the sunlight and fresh air and digging in your garden," he emphasizes. "The man who sits all day at his office desk, or the war worker who toils at his bench or lathe can both equally find relaxation and keen enjoyment in their Victory Gardens. And what is most important, the man with a Victory vegetable garden not only helps himself, he also helps his country by supplying his own private source of fresh vitamin-rich vegetables and thus lessening the strain on already overburdened transportation facilities, and releasing manhours for other urgent tasks."

Dr. Wasteneys declares that the experience a Victory Gardener gets in growing his own vegetables adds to the interest provided by his garden. As no two growing seasons are alike, new problems and new discoveries are eternally confronting him, and testing his skill and ingenuity.

"The thrill to be gained by producing one's own carrots, beans or cabbage is a thrill well worth experiencing," says Dr. Wasteneys, "and, strangely enough, it falls to diminish year by year. During the depression years, community gardens saved many a desperate and discouraged man from crime or suicide. Today, Victory Gardens play an essential part in the whole picture of our national war effort."

The Health League advises would-be Victory Gardeners to get in touch with the Federal or Provincial Departments of Agriculture for complete information on how to plant and look after a home vegetable garden.

Goes Back To Sea

Being Shipwrecked Did Not Bother 16-Year-Old Boy

Young Peter Cook was born 16 years ago in a cottage on top of the cliffs of Dover. His father was a seaman. His grandfather, too, and his father's grandfather. And like them, Peter wanted to go to sea.

The Atlantic Ocean took Peter's father in 1940. His mother begged her boy to stay ashore. She wanted him to be a doctor. But 13 months ago Peter joined the Merchant Navy—with a sad mother's blessing. He crossed the Atlantic as a ship's boy, and came home safely.

But recently Peter's ship was sunk in mid-Atlantic. A strong swimmer, he managed to clamber into a boat with six others of the crew.

The third officer of the ship told the rest of the story.

"After six days," he said, "our rations were cut to two biscuits and half a cup of water a day. Three of the men became delirious."

"We hadn't noticed Peter much. He sat quietly curled up, almost enjoying himself, it seemed."

"He grabbed one man who tried to walk overboard, and for the next three days, until we were picked up, told the three sick men stories to calm them down."

"Then, on the rescue ship he, too, collapsed."

They brought Peter back to England—but couldn't keep him. He has gone back to sea again.—London Daily Sketch.

Freedom's Fires Must Be Fed Our COAL!

CANADIANS must dig and deliver coal that we may sail convoys, power vital war plants, keep our railroads rolling, preserve the nation's health!

The coal mining industry—miners and management alike—have done wonders to provide coal, but they need help. More workers must be provided, or we fail—possibly fall—in this grim hour. Nature has been generous but we must help ourselves. Our mines are rich, but undermanned. By Proclamation, His Excellency the Governor General in Council has declared that labour supply for coal mines ranks as a national emergency. Further, in order to provide manpower for coal, the Governor in Council has issued an Order in Council aimed at swelling the flow of coal from mine to firepot.

This Order is of vital interest to everyone in Canada. Every Canadian should read and study its provisions, to see whether it demands any action on his part:

- 1 EVERY EMPLOYER, REGARDLESS OF HIS INDUSTRY, must advise his employees of these Regulations, and he must assist in discovering whether any of his employees have had previous experience as coal mine workers.
- 2 EVERY EMPLOYEE, REGARDLESS OF HIS INDUSTRY, who has had previous experience as a coal mine worker, must report that fact to his employer not later than Tuesday, May 25th, 1943.
- 3 A "COAL MINE WORKER" FOR THESE PURPOSES is anyone who since January 1st, 1935, has worked under provincial certificate or license in or around a coal mine, or who, since the same date, has been employed for a total of at least 24 months in the production of coal (except at office work).
- 4 EVERY EMPLOYER, NOT A COAL MINE OPERATOR, must report in writing to a Selective Service Officer not later than Tuesday, June 1st, 1943, full details on any of his employees who are ex-coal mine workers.
- 5 SELECTIVE SERVICE OFFICERS ARE AUTHORIZED to require ex-coal mine workers to report for interview and to accept work at a coal mine.
- 6 SELECTIVE SERVICE OFFICERS MAY REQUIRE any man in any employment, if subject to Mobilization Regulations but rejected for Military Training, and certain others excused from Military Training, to accept employment at a coal mine.
- 7 NO COAL MINE OPERATOR may terminate the services of any coal mine worker without written permission from a Selective Service Officer.
- 8 NO COAL MINE WORKER may leave employment at a coal mine without written permission from a Selective Service Officer.
- 9 EVERY EX-COAL MINE WORKER, returning to the industry under these Regulations, will be paid wages at the established rate for the job at which he is placed; and the Government will pay wages of 40 cents an hour, 8 hours a day and 48 hours a week, to any ex-coal mine worker required to leave his present employment under these provisions, but not placed immediately at coal mining.
- 10 A BOARD ALLOWANCE of not more than $7.50 a week may be paid an ex-coal mine worker now returning to a coal mine, if required to live away from the residence of his dependents.
- 11 PRESENT AND FUTURE COAL MINE WORKERS will be granted postponement from Military Training to February 1st, 1944, by virtue of their occupation; and no coal mine worker will be accepted for voluntary enlistment in the Armed Forces of Canada, prior to February 1st, 1944, except under permit to enlist from a Selective Service Officer.
- 12 NO EMPLOYER IN CANADA, EXCEPT A COAL MINE OPERATOR, may solicit for employment or hire any ex-coal mine worker.
- 13 REGARDLESS OF ANY DOMINION OR PROVINCIAL LAW, male persons at least 16 years old may be employed as coal mine workers, and female persons at least 18 years old may be employed as surface coal mine workers.
- 14 WAR EMERGENCY TRAINING CLASSES will be available for training men as coal mine workers.

Such is the substance of the new regulations. Full details may be had at any Employment and Selective Service Office. If these provisions require action on your part, you are urged in the national interest to act immediately. Severe penalties are provided for non-compliance, but the Government relies on the co-operation of the citizens of Canada to make prosecution unnecessary by prompt action as required. This is a grave emergency. Assist if you can.

POST-WAR PLANNER

"Sure there will be changes after the war... some are overdue. But I'm no robot. Whatever our post-war plans, I still want to see hard work rewarded and dividends paid on brains and initiative. I want the privilege of going into business for myself if I choose. Above all I want my kids to grow up where success depends on work, native ability and enterprise."
